

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact Information:

Jeff Carpenter, (888.525.9788 x 263)

VP, Sales and Marketing

Email: jcarpenter@food-safetynet.com

Web Site: www.food-safetynet.com

Dr. Temple Grandin visits FSNS in San Antonio!

San Antonio, September 3, 2010 - After hauling in a total of 7 Emmy Awards, Dr. Temple Grandin departed for San Antonio, Texas to lead the calibration meeting with FSNS leadership and auditing team! Dr. Grandin has been an animal welfare consultant to FSNS for over 10 years. Additionally, several of FSNS' long standing customers joined to take part in the annual opportunity to improve Animal Welfare processes and procedures.

Dr. Grandin remained extremely busy as both local and national media outlets vied to speak with her regarding her industry accomplishments in Animal Welfare. . You can view ABC's Diane Sawyer's interview of Dr. Grandin for "ABC's Person of the Week" on the Friday, September 3, 2010 segment.

After some long days, John and Gina Bellinger hosted Dr. Grandin for an award winning celebration, honoring her with an Emmy themed cake and congratulatory plaque! Food Safety Net Services congratulates her on this well deserved recognition.

[High-resolution photos of Dr. Grandin's visit are available at by email to ctoscano@food-safetynet.com.]

About Food Safety Net Services

Food Safety Net Services, based out of San Antonio, TX is a network of ISO-accredited laboratory; auditing and consulting services which helps improve the effectiveness of food safety and quality programs. Our experts help ensure that food safety and quality programs deliver the critical information needed to continually improve process controls and measurement systems. With 7 laboratories nationwide, FSNS provides National Expertise and localized service. For more information visit, www.food-safetynet.com